

Keighley Festival of Transport

Sunday 5th July 2009

Hosted by Keighley Bus Museum Trust at the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

- Display of historic heavy lorries and heritage buses at the Ingrow Railway Centre (adjacent to the award-winning Museum of Rail Travel and Ingrow Loco.)
- Display of Classic Cars and Light Commercials at Oxenhope Railway Station (adjacent to the Oxenhope Railway Exhibition Shed)
- Heritage Bus & Train services link Keighley - Ingrow - Haworth - Oxenhope throughout the day (0900 to 1700) with joint ticketing facilities. Train service includes Edwardian & Victorian carriages & steam locomotives and Real Ale Bar. Bus service includes Open Top double decker giving Scenic Tours with views across the three Valleys of Bronte Country.

Free to enter your vehicle

1. Guaranteed display space at Ingrow (buses & lorries) or Oxenhope (cars & light commercials)
2. Unlimited heritage bus travel between Keighley & Oxenhope.

Please note that due to space restrictions all exhibitors MUST pre-book. Also we regret we cannot accommodate trade stands or overnight camping and there will be no public parking at Ingrow Station and only very limited public parking at Oxenhope Station. It is recommended that non-exhibitors use the greater availability of public parking in central Keighley and at Haworth and travel to Ingrow and Oxenhope by the frequent bus and train service.

Please enclose an SAE for the return of your entry passes and exhibitor information
